7.12.2001

Petitioner by Shri Prashant Mishra, Adv.

State by Dr. N.K.Shukla, Deputy Advocate General with Shri Gautam Bhaduri, Govt. Advocate.

Heard finally with the consent of the parties along with other connected matters analogously.

It is pointed out that earlier in Writ Petition No. 1343 of 2001 (Chhattisgarh Tratiya Warg Shaskiya Karmachari Sangh Vs. State of Chhattisgarh & others) learned Single Bench of this Court had passed order on 20.8.2001 with some observations. Learned Single Bench of this Court has also passed orders in the petitions filed by the individuals.

After passing of the orders by learned Single Bench of this Court some of the petitioners approached the State Govt./competent authority by making representations and some have approached the Commissioner as was directed in the order.

Feeling aggrieved by the decision on their representations some of them approached the State Administrative Tribunal by filing Original Applications. Learned State Administrative Tribunal passed individual orders in each of the petition. Against the order passed by the State Administrative Tribunal the petitioners have filed petitions before this Court.

The matter relates to policy of rationalization of transfer and posting of teachers of Primary and Middle Schools. The education session is going on. The order of transfer and posting by which some of the persons/teachers are aggrieved is of the month of July 2001. From that time the teachers are litigating in Courts, the education of the students is affecting in absence of teachers. Dr Shukla submits that in some schools there is no teacher and in some schools there is only one teacher hence no teaching is being carried on and the transferred teachers should join at their place of posting so that interest of the students, institution and petitioners may be safeguarded.

We have given our thoughtful consideration on all the aspects of the matter. In the best interest of the students, institutions and petitioners whose cases have already been scrutinized and that the transfer being exigency of service, the rationalization is being carried on in the larger public interest as well as in the interest of education in this tribal State, no case for interference is made out at this stage.

Having thus considered the facts and circumstances of the case it is just and proper that a direction be issued that those who, including the petitioners, have not joined their place of posting to join immediately latest by 15th December, 2001 at their respective place of posting, work for a month or so in order to know the ground realities and situation and if
